DUNDEE 8 6. 8 6.

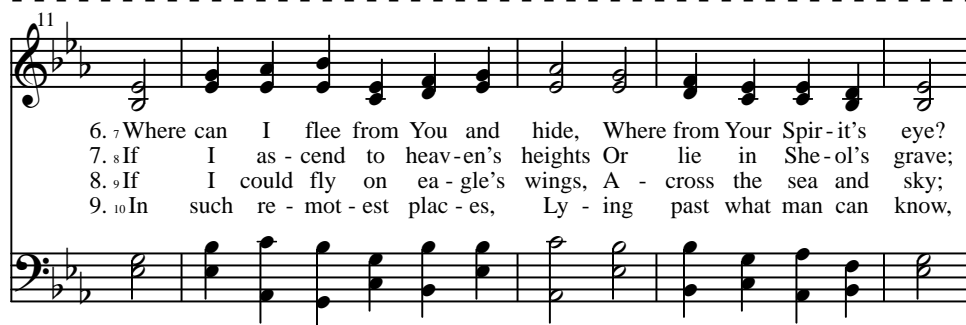

Scottish Psalter, 1615

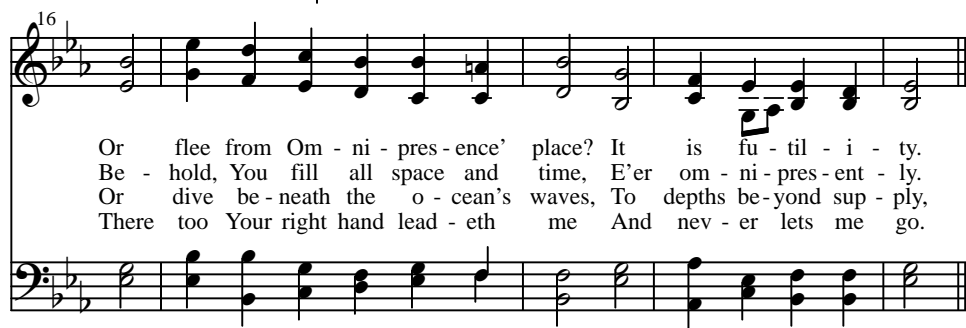

1. ¹O LORD, You've searched and known me well, ²You know my go - ing still.
2. ³You scru - tin - ize my path, my way, My rest in night and day;
3. 4Be - fore a word is on my tongue, Or words are in my mouth;
4. ⁵You have en - closed my life a - round, Be - fore, be - hind, be - side;
5. ⁶Such know - ledge of Your wis - dom is Too won - der - ful for me;

You un - der - stand my thought be - fore I think, or do, or will.
You know me more than I can know, In all my hid - den ways.
Be - hold, You know them well be - fore I speak or lisp them out.
And laid Your right hand on my head, To hold and bless and chide.
I can - not fath - om such a Mind, In all Your sov - reign - ty.

6. ⁷Where can I flee from You and hide, Where from Your Spir - it's eye?
7. ⁸If I as - cend to heav - en's heights Or lie in She - ol's grave;
8. ⁹If I could fly on ea - gle's wings, A - cross the sea and sky;
9. ¹⁰In such re - mot - est plac - es, Ly - ing past what man can know,

Or flee from Om - ni - pres - ence' place? It is fu - til - i - ty.
Be - hold, You fill all space and time, E'er om - ni - pres - ent - ly.
Or dive be - neath the o - cean's waves, To depths be - yond sup - ply,
There too Your right hand lead - eth me And nev - er lets me go.
